

GARDEN PARTY AT BRONX PARK A WELCOME SPRING EVENT

Annual Entertainment of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Zoological Society Next Thursday—Work for War Relief and Philanthropy—Weddings and Engagements

A welcome change from the routine of society there will come this week the spring garden party of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the New York Zoological Society, which will be held on Thursday afternoon in the Zoological Park. This garden party has been for years a fixture of the spring, and it comes when the Bronx Park is at its loveliest, with the trees in their fresh foliage and many of the flowering shrubs in full bloom.

Tea will be served in the administration building, and Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, whose husband, Prof. Osborn, is president of the board of managers, will preside. Madison Grant and Frank E. Bourne are vice-presidents of the society. Mr. Grant gives up much of his time to the management of the zoo, which has so many attractions for young and old.

Among the auxiliary members are Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. W. R. Osgood Field, Mrs. J. Borden Harrison, Mrs. Stephen H. Olin, Miss Anne Morgan, Miss Eleanor De Graff Cuyler, Mrs. Walter E. Maynard, Miss Marbury, Mrs. Alexander S. Webb, Mrs. Levi P. Morton, Mrs. Finley J. Shepard, Mrs. Percy R. Pyne, Mrs. Richard Trimble, Mrs. Richard Irvine, Mrs. Mary Parsons, Miss Florence Elliott, Mrs. William H. Hyde, Mrs. J. P. A. Clark, Miss Amy Townsend, Mrs. Thomas Hastings, Mrs. Ralph Sanger, Mrs. J. Marge Eliaworth, Mrs. George C. Clark, Mrs. W. Pierson Hamilton, Miss Pauline Robinson, Mrs. Edward M. Townsend, Mrs. Arthur Iselin and Mrs. August Gray. There will be music during the reception and many will take advantage of the day for an automobile trip.

It is to be regretted that the annual garden party which has been held for years in behalf of the Army Relief Society at Governors Island will be given up this year owing to the war.

There will be for weeks to come many opportunities to contribute to war relief funds and philanthropic institutions through concerts and other entertainments. An interesting concert will be given on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond, 9 East Ninety-first street, by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers, who have returned recently from entertainment work with the Y. M. C. A. in the United States in France. It is called a camp concert, and with it there will be an informal talk on conditions in the American Expeditionary Forces. The proceeds will be devoted to the Art Workers Club for Women, of which organization Mrs. Rogers is the secretary.

Among the other officers and directors are Miss Constance Curtis, Miss Georgiana Howland, Miss Lydia Field Emmet, Miss Martha W. Baxter, Miss Grace Schuyler de Luce, Miss Susan Dwight Bliss, Mrs. Charles M. Connell, Miss Elizabeth Curtis, Miss Elizabeth Hicks, Miss Sylvia Jewell, Mrs. Lyle E. Mahan, Miss Ella S. Valk and Miss Susan Warren. The advisory board comprises Herbert Adams, Daniel Chester French, Edwin Howland Blashfield, F. Lute Mora, George De Forest Brush, John S. Sargent, Frank V. Dumond, Allen Tucker and J. Alden Weir.

Tickets at $2.50 each may be obtained at the club, 224 West Fifty-eighth street.

A concert of unusual interest was given recently at the home of Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin by an organization of young Southern colored women known as the Sedalia Quartette from the Palmer Memorial Institute of Sedalia, N. C. They sang plantation melodies and spirituals.

The school in Sedalia where these young women have been educated is an industrial and educational institution and its aim is to educate the negroes to teach their own people. The concert platform was arranged with a background of vines, leaves and baskets of vegetables, and it made an appropriate setting for the performers, the singers wearing gingham gowns with sunbonnets hanging from their arms.

A fire last December destroyed the well equipped industrial building of the school, and the concert was given with a hope of restoring this loss. About $1,000 was netted.

Among those who are interested in the welfare of the institution are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brewster, Mrs. W. B. Osgood Field, Mrs. Ernest G. Fabbri, Miss Mary Pearl Field, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall J. Dodge, Mrs. Charles S. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Greer, Mrs. John S. Rogers, Mrs. James Roosevelt, George Foster Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond, Mrs. J. Russell Soley, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Duncan, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sloane Coffin, Mrs. Percy Stewart, Mrs. Frederick H. Osborn, Miss Eleanor De G. Cuyler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Jennings, Mrs. Robert Waller, Mr. and Mrs. John Bealey Ward, Mr. and Mrs. George Du Pont Pratt and Mrs. Newbold Morris.

For the benefit of the Smoke and Cancer Fund of the Dewey Recreation Committee of the Woman's Naval Service at 27 West Fifty-seventh street, a safe chantant will be given next Sunday evening at the Studios, 40 West Fifty-seventh street, at which some of the popular artists of the theatre will appear. J. Phillip Benard, J. Kay Laurel and Marion Davies, the Kelly Sisters, Ann Pennington, Leo Carillo, Grace La Rue, Ida Claire, Lawrence Haynes, Claire Toca, Beth Lyday, Harry Fox and Genevieve Robin and Clifton Crawford.

Among the many patronesses are Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., George J. Gould, William Dismont, Charles De Loosy Oelrichs, A. D. B. Pratt, Charles De Rham, Jr., George B. St. George, Robert E. Tod, John W. Wacker, Jr., Walter Brooks, Jr., Spencer F. Eddy, Leonard M. Thomas, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Angier B. Duke, Stanhope Nixon, Sherman Flint, Gurnee Munn, Cornelius H. Tansman, J. West Roosevelt, Adolf Ladenburg, Louis A. Kaufman, Frederick Lewisohn, Oliver Perin, J. Philip Benard, William Rogers, Marshall Russell and E. Lounsbury Perry.

Miss Julie Lenthion and Miss Marion Tiffany are in charge of the tickets, which are 50 cents, and they will have the assistance in selling them of the Misses Ursing Sibley, Adrienne Iselt, Florence Glendenia, Mary Haskell, Gertrude Hoyt, Audrey Hoffman, Margaret Flint, Betty Jackson, Sophie Duer, Dorothy Shepard and Ruth King. After midnight there will be dancing to music of a navy band.

One of the entertainments of the week will be given for the benefit of the American Girls' Aid in the Plaza ballroom on Wednesday evening, when members of the Snarks and the Amateur Comedy Club will produce several comedies. The proceeds will be devoted to units in France and Belgium which care for children and invalids.

Among the patronesses are Misses Charles H. Ditson, Arthur G. Meyer, Ambrose Monell, William H. Harris, Herbert Carter, John B. Taylor, Alfred L. White, Thomas F. Ryan, Chauncey M. Deane, Whitney Warren, Eliza F. Warner, Horace S. Ely, C. Vanderbilt, John L. Downey, J. Edgar Bull, Carleton Macy and Louis Livingston Seaman.

After the comedies there will be dancing. Tickets and boxes may be ordered at the rooms of the society, 224 Fifth avenue, and of Mrs. Robert L. Streibeln, 43 East Sixty-first street.

It has been proposed by the society in connection with the forthcoming Red Cross drive and beginning a week earlier there will be held at 723 Fifth avenue a series of marionette vaudeville performances under the direction of Tony Barr. This place is an unoccupied shop, and it will be turned into a marionette theatre. It has been decorated with a view to the miniature performers. The place opens directly into the side street and avenue, and thus it will be easy of access to children. Paul Chaffin has made the decorations for the theatre, in which there will be given three performances—at 3, 4:30 and 8:30—each day. Tickets for the afternoon will be 50 cents and at night $1.

The plays will include "The Music Lesson," "A Night in Delhi," "The Juggler," "The Harlequin Dancer," "The Performing Elephant and Donkey," "Puppet Dreamland," "The Musical Clown" and the appearance of "Little Greta." The history of marionettes dates back to the early beginnings of Italian dramatic art and such performances have an interest for old and young.

Among the members of the society are Mrs. George M. Tuttle, Mrs. J. West Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harkness Flieger, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald G. Villard, Mrs. Edwin T. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald de Koven, Miss Georgiana Schuyler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtis, Mrs. Mrs. Ethelbert Nevill and Mrs. J. Fred Tams.

pictures of gardens and other subjects painted in water colors by Miss Dorothy Freeman of Riverdale-on-Hudson. Miss Freeman is the daughter of Mrs. B. Wheelock Freeman, and her brother, Edward Woolsey Freeman, married Miss Dorothy Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Perkins of Riverdale.

Miss Freeman has passed some time recently in Charleston, S. C., and in addition to paintings of gardens there she has included some street scenes of that old city, as well as some of the doorway. Her exhibition will include also sketches of gardens in Corsica, N. H., especially that of the Saint-Gaudens place.

Among other gardens that Miss Freeman has painted are those of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland H. Dodge, Miss Harriet Ogden, Mrs. A. H. Hinkle, Miss Anne Remsen Webb, Mrs. Frederick Allen and Mrs. E. J. Heron, as well as some views of Glyndor, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Perkins in Riverdale.

The exhibition will be held in the studio of Miss Therop, 37 East Sixty-eighth street, from May 14 to 27 inclusive.
